

Name: James Camp
Place: Nazeing
Status: Yeoman
Will Dated: 10-February 1605
Will Probated: May 1607
Executor/ix: Jane Campe (widow) Overseer: Robert Campe (brother), John Shelley (cousin)
Witnesses: John Shelley & Nicholas Camp
Wife/Husband: Joane
Sons: Robert & Thomas
Grandson: Robert

In the name of God Amen The tenth Daye of February in the yeare of our Lord God one thousand sixe hundred & five. And in the fourth yeare of the Raigne of our Sovereigne Lord James by the God King of England France & Ireland Defendor of the faith & of Scotland the VI I James Campe of Nasing in the Countye of Essex & Diocese of London yeoman being of good & pfect remembrance (thanks be unto Almightye God) Doe make & ordayne this my last Will & Testament in maner & forme following First I commend my soule unto Almightye God my Creator & to Jesus Christ my redeemer by whose Death & passion I beleve onlye to be saved, and Icomit my bodye to the earth to be buried in such place as yt shall please God to Appoint for me Item I will that all such Debts & Dutyes as I owe of right & Conscience to any person to be payed by my Executors And also after my bodye buried my funeralls Discharged & my Debts payed I dispose of & bequeath the Rest of my goods & Lande as followeth I will give & bequeath to Joane my wife Three Acres of Land lying in Madlands in Nasing which I lately purchased of Thomas Williams lying in three parcells And one p'cell of Land called Nopses conteyning by estimation one acre more or lesse to have & to hold the said p'cells of Lande unto Joane my said wife During her naturall life and after her decease I give the same parcells of Land to Robert Campe my sonnes sonne & to the heires of his bodye lawfully begotten I will that the said parcells of Land shall remaine & be to the right heires of me the said James for ever Item I give to Thomas Campe my sonne one standing bed in the new chamber with all the furniture thereto belonging as it now standeth & three payre of good shets & one ioyned Chest and a mault Querne, a salting Trough, one ladder & a Chesepresse Item I give to my sonne Rob't Campe one Corslet of Armour furnished Item I give to my Daughter Joanes sonne Jhon Clarke now living Twenty shillings Item I give to Robert my sonnes sonne Twenty & to Sara Campe his daughter tenne pounds to be payde unto all my said childrens children by my Executors when as they shall accomlishe their severall ages of one & Twentye years Item I give to the pore people of the parishe of Nasing Twentye shillings, & likewise to the poore people of the parishe of Roydon twentye shillings to be payed by my Executors within one quarter of a yeare after my decease Item I give to Thomas Wilkinson my servant three shillings foure pence Item I give to Margaret Peppercorne three shillings foure pence

Item I giveto Joane Cotherniwood three shillings foure pence
All the the rest of my goods corne Cattel chattells moveables & householdstuffe whatsoever not before bequeathed I whollye give & bequeath to Joane my wife whome I ordaine & make my sole & onlye executor to performe this my last will & Testament according to the true meaning thereof. And hereby I utterlye revoke & renounce all other wills heretofore by me made Item I ordaine upon request to them made my brother Robert Campe & my Cozen Jhon Shelley to be overseers of this my last will to see the same performed according to my true entent And I give to ech of them for their paines herein fiveshillings In wittnesse whereof I the said James Campe have hereunto sett my hand & seale the Daye & yeare first above written In the presence of us
John Shelleye (signs)
Nicholas Campe (mark)

This was acknowledged by James Campe to be his last will & Testament as yt is now amended after thereof, in the presence of Tho: Fale